

EL ESTADO DE DERECHO COMO PROMOTOR DEL DESARROLLO ECONÓMICO NACIONAL

*Genaro David
Góngora Pimentel*

F
342.20972
G6386e
EJ.2 (07-7688)
BIB. NO. 2

Instituto de Investigación Económica y Social Lucas Alamán, A.C.

El futuro inmediato y mediano de la Economía Mexicana

F
330.972
S6875f
EJ.2 (07-7747)
BIB. NO. 2

Leopoldo Solís Manjarrez

ÍNDICE

Prólogo	III
EL FUTURO INMEDIATO Y MEDIATO DE LA ECONOMÍA MEXICANA	1
CAMBIOS DEMOGRÁFICOS	1
La Población de México en el Siglo XX	2
Políticas de Población y Cambio Demográfico en el Siglo XX	2
Hacia la estabilización de la población	3
MAQUILADORAS	4
Antecedentes	4
Apertura comercial y auge de las maquiladoras	5
Desplazamientos territoriales Este-Oeste, Norte-Sur	12
REFLEXIONES FINALES	15
Sobre los autores	17

ÍNDICE DE CUADROS

Cuadro 1. IME: empleos generados, 1990-2006	6
Cuadro 2. Maquiladoras: establecimientos según grupo de productos procesados	9
Cuadro 3. Maquiladoras: IED por países, 1994-2005	11
Cuadro 4. IME: Número de establecimientos, 1990-2006	13

ÍNDICE DE GRÁFICAS

Gráfica 1. Exportaciones maquiladoras como % de las exportaciones totales y manufactureras, 1991-2005	7
Gráfica 2. IDE en las maquiladoras como % de la IED total y manufacturera, 1990-2005	8

M. R. MOLANO LÓPEZ

LA FISCALÍA
GENERAL
DE LA NACIÓN

.11109861

75f

1 (06-1021)

. NO. 2

TEMIS

3

ÍNDICE GENERAL

CAPÍTULO I

SISTEMA MIXTO DE PROCEDIMIENTO PENAL: PERFIL CONSTITUCIONAL

Introducción	1
1. El sistema acusatorio	2
A) Características	3
B) Efectos	4
2. El sistema inquisitivo	5
A) Características	6
B) Efectos	7
3. El sistema mixto	7
A) Características	10
B) Funcionamiento del sistema mixto en derecho com- parado	12
4. Adopción del sistema mixto en nuestro derecho ..	17
A) Características del sistema constitucional adoptado	19

CAPÍTULO II

JUSTIFICACIÓN CONSTITUCIONAL DEL NUEVO SISTEMA DE INVESTIGACIÓN (Propósitos del constituyente)

Introducción	23
1. Proceso de enmienda de 1978-1979	23
2. Proceso de enmienda constitucional 1988-1989	26
3. Antecedentes de lo adoptado por la Constitución de 1991	28

A) Principales motivaciones para establecer la Fiscalía General de la Nación	29
B) Temas de mayor discrepancia en cuanto al establecimiento de la Fiscalía	31

CAPÍTULO III

NATURALEZA DE LA FISCALÍA GENERAL
DE LA NACIÓN

1. Tendencia al interior de la Constituyente	33
A) Naturaleza ejecutiva	33
B) Naturaleza de control	37
2. Naturaleza judicial de la Fiscalía	38
A) Naturaleza judicial manteniendo la investigación en cabeza de jueces de instrucción	39
B) Naturaleza judicial con centralización de las funciones de investigación y acusación	41
3. Génesis de la norma constitucional sobre la naturaleza judicial de la Fiscalía	44
4. La función de administrar justicia frente a la Fiscalía General de la Nación	47
A) La teoría del poder público	48
B) La actividad jurisdiccional	50
5. Conclusión	56

CAPÍTULO IV

APLICACIÓN DE LOS PRINCIPIOS RECTORES
DE ACTUACIÓN Y ORGANIZACIÓN DE LA FISCALÍA
GENERAL DE LA NACIÓN

1. Principios rectores de la administración de justicia frente a la Fiscalía General de la Nación	60
A) La investigación criminal y el ejercicio de la acción penal como funciones públicas	60
B) Independencia	62

C) Publicidad	67
D) Permanencia	67
E) Prevalencia del derecho sustancial	68
F) Celeridad	68
G) Funcionamiento desconcentrado	69
H) De la autonomía	70
I) La autonomía de la Fiscalía General	71
J) Principios de equidad y principios generales de derecho	76
2. Principios que rigen exclusivamente para la Fiscalía General de la Nación	77
A) Centralización y coordinación	77
B) Principio de integración o unidad jerarquizada y delegación	79
C) Principio de competencia para todos los delitos	81
D) Principio de competencia plena en lo territorial	86
E) Principio de imparcialidad	87
F) Principio de concurrencia	89
G) Naturaleza preparatoria de los actos del fiscal general de la nación	91

CAPÍTULO V

ATRIBUCIONES DEL FISCAL GENERAL DE LA NACIÓN

Sobre el marco general de competencia	93
Atribuciones que desarrollan la cláusula general de competencia	96
A) Medidas de aseguramiento y cautelares	97
B) Calificación del mérito del sumario y preclusión del proceso	103
C) Dirección y coordinación de las funciones de policía judicial	106
D) Protección de víctimas, testigos e intervinientes	114
E) Funciones legales de la Fiscalía General de la Nación	116

3. Atribuciones especiales o específicas del fiscal general de la nación	117
A) Investigación y acusación de altos funcionarios	118
B) Potestad de nombramiento y remoción	123
C) Participación en la política criminal del Estado	125
D) Otorgamiento de atribuciones transitorias de policía judicial	126
E) Suministrar informes al gobierno en virtud del orden público	128

CAPÍTULO VI

RELACIONES DEL FISCAL GENERAL CON LAS RAMAS
DEL PODER PÚBLICO

1. El origen del fiscal	131
2. Relaciones de la Fiscalía General con el órgano ejecutivo	134
A) En el orden público	134
B) En las relaciones internacionales	138
3. Relaciones de la Fiscalía General de la Nación con los demás órganos de la rama judicial	143
A) Con jueces y tribunales	143
B) Relaciones de la Fiscalía General de la Nación con el Consejo Superior de la Judicatura	144
4. Relaciones del fiscal con el Congreso de la República	148
5. Relaciones de la Fiscalía General con el ministerio público	149
A) Con la Procuraduría	149
B) Con el defensor del pueblo	150
6. Colaboración de poderes en el proceso penal	150

INSTITUTO NACIONAL
DE ADMINISTRACIÓN
PÚBLICA, A.C.

CONTENCIOSO

ADMINISTRATIVO

EN LA REFORMA

DEL ESTADO

272

C

(07-7689)

NO. 2

ÍNDICE

	Pag
Presentación	5
Dr. José Natividad González Parás
Prólogo	7
Mag. Ma. Guadalupe Aguirre Soria
Naturaleza y alcances de la reforma del Estado en México	13
Dr. José Natividad González Parás
El origen de la jurisdicción administrativa	23
Dra. Margarita Lomelí Cerezo
El Tribunal Fiscal de la Federación. Una visión del foro ante las propuestas de su traslado al Poder Judicial de la Federación	41
Lic. Augusto Fernández Sagardi
La función jurisdiccional administrativa en materia laboral	49
Dr. Hugo Ítalo Morales Saldaña
Naturaleza jurídica de los tribunales agrarios	79
Mag. Rodolfo Veloz Bañuelos
Tribunales locales de lo contencioso administrativo en las entidades federativas	93
Lic. Gabriela María Chaín Castro

El contencioso administrativo en el Poder Judicial	105
Dr. Miguelángel García Domínguez

El Tribunal Fiscal de la Federación. Integración orgánica al Poder Judicial e independencia jurisdiccional	137
Dr. Gonzalo M. Armienta Calderón

Nuevo marco jurídico del contencioso administrativo en México	151
Lic. Javier Moreno Padilla

LOS RETOS DEL FEDERALISMO MEXICANO:

La cuestión de la efectividad del gasto descentralizado y la rendición de cuentas

F
321.02
R438r
EJ. 2 (07-7750)
BIB. NO. 2

CIDAC

Fundación para la Libertad

Friedrich Naumann
Stiftung

Mexico

A Comprehensive Development Agenda for The New Era

Edited by
Marcelo M. Giugale,
Olivier Lafourcade,
and Vinh H. Nguyen

THE WORLD BANK
WASHINGTON, DC

Contents

748

177

Acknowledgments	xix
Foreword.	xxiii
Acronyms	xxvii
Synthesis	1
I. Rationale and Organization	1
II. Core Messages.	2
Consolidating Macroeconomic Gains	4
Accelerating Growth through Enhanced Competitiveness	8
Reducing Poverty through Human Capital Development	12
Balancing Growth and Poverty Reduction with Protecting Natural Resources	17
Building an Efficient, Accountable, and Transparent Government	18
III. Conclusion: Putting It All Together	21
Synthesis (in Spanish)	23

Part I

Chapter 1. Fiscal Sustainability.	51
I. Introduction	51
II. Government Solvency and Sustainable Debt.	52
III. Conceptual Distinctions: Explicit and Implicit (Real or Contingent) Fiscal Deficits.	53
IV. Recommendations.	54
Fiscal Sustainability.	54
Public Debt Management	55
Pension Reform	57
Chapter 2. Growth and Competitiveness	59
I. Macroeconomic Overview	59

II.	The Financial Sector	60
	Overview	60
	Need for Increased Efficiency	64
	Need for Improved Accessibility	66
	Need for Increased Stability and Soundness	68
III.	Infrastructure	69
	Consolidating and Extending Sectoral Reforms	71
	Financing Infrastructure Services	78
IV.	Agriculture	79
	Table 1. GDP: Average Yearly Growth Rates by Sector	61
	Figure 1. Foreign Direct Investment	62
	Figure 2. Exports by Region	62
	Figure 3. Evolution of the Minimum Wage	63
	Figure 4. Evolution of Mean Daily Earnings Per Worker, Manufacturing Sector.	63
	Figure 5. Public Investment versus Oil Prices	65
	Figure 6. Mexico: Public, Private, Total Investment as Percent of GDP	70
	Figure 7. Economic and Agriculture Growth Rates.	80
	Chapter 3. Poverty and Inequality	85
I.	Introduction	85
II.	Providing Security	89
	Evaluating Government Programs	89
	Identifying Key Risks and Gaps in Coverage	94
III.	Building Opportunities	95
	Health	98
	Education.	101
	Urban Labor Markets	104
	Rural Development.	108
IV.	Empowering Specific Groups	111
	Indigenous Peoples	111
	Gender Issues	115
	Figure 1. Broad-based and Targeted Policies	86
	Figure 2. An Alternative Framework for Poverty Reduction	86
	Figure 3. Resources Channeled to Poverty Alleviation Programs	89
	Figure 4. Government Spending for Poverty Alleviation	89
	Table 1. Managing Social Risk in Mexico: Main Risk Indicators, Size of At-Risk Groups, and Best Practice Policy Responses	96
	Chapter 4. A Sustainable Future	117
I.	Recent Developments	117
	International and Domestic Context	117

	The Legal and Institutional Response	118
	Some Initial Successes and Achievements: Biodiversity and Air Pollution	120
II.	Issues	121
	Environmental Degradation	121
	Policies and Incentives	123
	Institutions and Environmental Management	124
III.	Options for the Future	126
	Institutional Strengthening	126
	More Clout to Core Functions	127
	Mainstreaming	129
	Table 1. Sectoral Distribution of Depletion and Degradation, 1996	122
	Figure 1. Environmental Responsibilities	127
	Chapter 5. Accountability and the Demand for Quality Government	133
I.	Rationale and Overview	133
II.	Decentralization: Assuring the Sustainability of a Process Already in Motion	134
III.	Justice: Making Reforms Work	136
IV.	Corruption: A Broad, Pending Agenda	139

Part II

Fiscal Sustainability

	Chapter 6. Macroeconomic Assessment	145
I.	Introduction	145
II.	Macroeconomic and Financial Vulnerability	148
III.	Fiscal Sustainability and Opportunities to Increase Potential Growth	152
IV.	Fiscal and Monetary Policies: Their Role in Macroeconomic Management	154
V.	The Choice of an Exchange Rate System	155
VI.	Options with Regard to Monetary Policy Regime	158
	Money Anchor	158
	Inflation Targeting	158
VII.	Conclusions	160
	References	161
	Figure 1. Annual Inflation (Variation: December to December)	146
	Figure 2. Annual Growth of Real GDP	146
	Figure 3. Current Account Balance	149
	Figure 4. Real Exchange Rate Indexes (1990=100)	151
	Figure 5. Public Sector Indicators	153

Table 1. Indicators of Foreign Vulnerability	148
Table 2. Foreign Debt in Regional Context.	150
Chapter 7. Fiscal Sustainability.	163
I. Background	163
Brief History of Mexican Fiscal Policy	163
Fiscal Sustainability Defined	164
II. Issues	166
Fiscal Policy and Business Cycles	166
Deficit Reductions and Infrastructure	168
Taxation	169
Contingent Liabilities	170
Summary of Empirical Tests of Fiscal Sustainability	172
III. Policy Options	174
Assessment of the Scope of the Problem:
Omissions and Benchmarking.	174
IV. Conclusion	176
References	177
Figure 1. Mexico Public Net Debt and Primary Deficit (+) as Percent of GDP 1980–98	165
Figure 2. Mexico Overall and Primary Deficit (+) as Percent of GDP 1980–98	165
Figure 3. Composition of Exports	167
Figure 4. Fiscal Revenues and Oil Dependence	167
Figure 5. Primary Deficit vs. Public Investment	168
Figure 6. Public Investment vs. Oil Prices	169
Figure 7. Tax Revenue as Percent of GDP, Selected Countries 1992–98.	170
Figure 8. Components of Tax Revenues as Percent of GDP, Mexico 1980–98	171
Figure 9. Concentration and Growth of Subnational Debt, 1994–98: Selected States	175
Figure 10. Gross Federal Debt as Percent of GDP: International Benchmarks.	176
Table 1. Estimate of the Overall Cost of the Financial Rescue, December 1999	172
Table 2. Contingent Liabilities Recognized by the Federal Government	173
Table 3. Mexico Federal Debt	174
Chapter 8. Challenges and Prospects for Tax Reform	179
I. Background	179
II. Level and Structure of Taxation in Mexico	180
III. Current Policies and Options in Mexico's Tax Regime	182
Oil Taxation	183

Corporate Income (Profit) Tax	185
Personal Income Tax	186
Value-Added Tax	188
Excises	190
Sub-national Taxes	191
IV. Administration, Collection, and Enforcement	194
V. Tax Reform Implementation Strategy	196
References	197
Table 1. Mexico: General Government Revenues	180
Table 2. Effectiveness of Value-Added Tax Collection, 1997	188

Chapter 9. Public Debt Management Stocktaking and Challenges Ahead . . . 199

I. Introduction	199
II. Public Debt Management: Recent Experience in Mexico	201
Nonfinancial Public Sector	201
III. Instituto de Protección al Ahorro Bancario (IPAB)	207
IV. Fideicomiso de Apoyo para el Rescate de Autopistas Concesionadas (FARAC)	210
V. Proyectos de Impacto Diferido en el Registro del Gasto (PIDIREGAS)	212
VI. Other (Contingent) Liabilities	213
VII. Indexation of Domestic Debt Instruments	213
VIII. Absorptive Capacity of the Domestic Debt Market	214
IX. Conclusions	217
Bibliography	219
Figure 1. Total, Domestic and External Public Debt, 1989–99	202
Figure 2. Real Exchange Rate, 1989–99	202
Figure 3. Average Maturity, Domestic Public Debt	205
Figure 4. Composition of Domestic Public Debt Instruments	205
Annex 1. Mexico's Domestic Debt: Auction Structure (February 1998–December 2000)	220
Annex 2. IPAB Debt Accounting Framework	221

Chapter 10. Pension Reform 223

I. The Demographic Context to Pension Reform	223
II. The Fiscal Context of Pension Reform	224
The Mandatory Pension System for Private Sector Workers	225
Pension System for Federal Government Employees	226
Pension Systems for State Government Employees	226
Pension System for Employees of Parastatal Enterprises	227
III. Status of Reforms	227
IV. The Future Reform Agenda	228
Pension Systems for Private Sector Employees	229

Pension Systems for Public Sector Employees	231
INFONAVIT	232
Complementary Reforms in Capital Markets	233
V. The Social Dimension of Pension Reform: Equity, Poverty, and Coverage	234
VI. Reform Priorities: A Suggested Plan of Action	237
Figure 1. Mexico's Demographic Outlook, 1990–2035	224
Figure 2. Sector Allocation of Mexican Workers	225
Figure 3. Distribution of Payroll Contributions in a Reformed Pension System	236

Growth and Competitiveness

Chapter 11. Banking Sector	241
I. Financial Sector Objectives: Efficiency, Accessibility, and Stability	241
II. The High Cost of Banking Crises	242
III. Mexico's Financial Sector Reform	242
IV. Measures Adopted to Avert a Systemic Collapse of the Banking System	243
V. IPAB Bank Recapitalization and Resolurion Programs	245
VI. The Regulatory Reform Program	246
Pending Regulatory Issues and Continuity of Implemented Strategies	246
Pending Legal Reforms to Improve Incentives to the Financial Sector	246
VII. Supervisory and Regulatory Arrangements	247
VIII. Financing to the Private Sector	248
IX. Globalization and the Entry of Foreign Banks	253
X. IPAB's Liabilities and Funding Requirements	255
Annex I. Regulatory Reforms	261
Figure 1. Real Return on 28-Day Cetes	245
Figure 2. Stock and Flow of Commercial Bank Credit to the Private Sector	249
Figure 3. Commercial Banking System: Total Deposits	250
Figure 4. Commercial Banks: Asset Composition	251
Figure 5. Commercial Banks: Sources of Interest Income	252
Figure 6. Overhead Costs as Percent of Total Assets	254
Figure 7. FOBAPROA Notes: Debt Service Commitments	256
Figure 8. BPA Premium Costs Over 28-Day Cete Rates	257
Table 1. Sources of Financing to the Private Sector	253
Table 2. Structure of IPAB Liabilities	255

Chapter 12. Micro, Small, and Medium-Scale Enterprises 265

I. Background	265
II. Issues	268

III. Possible Areas of Work.	269
Government Programs that Provide Business
Development Services.	269
Microfinance and SME Finance	272
Monitoring and Evaluation	275
References	277
Figure 1. Export Status by Size, 1993–98.	267

Chapter 13. Housing 279

I. Introduction	279
II. Characteristics of Supply and Demand	279
III. Institutional and Market Structure	280
IV. Recent Performance.	282
V. Issues	285
Macroeconomic Instability	285
Sector Governance	286
Bias toward Finished Housing	287
Poor Performance of Public and Quasi-Public Institutions	288
Poorly Designed Subsidies.	291
VI. A New Housing Policy	292
Key Actions	292
VII. Conclusion	299
Figure 1. Housing Finance in Mexico	281
Table 1. New Mortgage Originations and Outstanding Mortgage Debt.	284

Chapter 14. Urban Development 301

I. Introduction and Background	301
II. The Challenges in Mexico's Urban Development	301
Size Specific Challenges.	311
The Institutional Context	312
III. Perspectives and Key Issues	314
Urban Governance and Institutional Design in Mexico.	314
Enhancing Local Economic Productivity and
Competitiveness.	315
Cities and Poverty Reduction	316
Learning from Successes and Failures of Urban Management	317
IV. Toward an Agenda for Urban Development in Mexico	317
Figure 1. Mexico: States Population and Crime Rates.	307
Table 1. Urban-Rural Population and Crimes in Mexico, 1998.	302
Table 2. Mexico's Expenditure Assignment.	303

Chapter 15. Rural Development and Agriculture. 319

I. Recent Developments	319
----------------------------------	-----

	Some Facts	321
II.	Key Issues	323
	Rural Poverty	323
	An Unfriendly Incentive Framework	325
	Poorly Functioning Markets	327
	The Efficiency of Public Goods	333
	The "Institutionality" of Rural Development	337
III.	Options for the Future	339
	Figure 1. Growth Rates	322
	Figure 2. Age Pyramids	332
	Table 1. Real Producer Prices for Key Crops	325
	Table 2. Nominal Protection Rates	326
	Chapter 16. Federal Transport	347
I.	Overview	347
II.	Background	348
III.	Issues	348
	The Non-Tolled Federal System	349
	Urban Transport	350
	Institutional Setting	350
IV.	Policy Options	351
	Rationalizing The Toll Road System	351
	Ensuring the Preservation and Modernization of the Non-Tolled Road Network	352
	Establish Institutions that Reflect the New Characteristics of the Sector	353
	Improve the Efficiency and Efficacy of Urban Transport	354
	Chapter 17. Energy	357
I.	Overview	357
II.	Current Situation	358
III.	Recent Performance	359
	Energy and the Economy	360
IV.	Energy Demand Projections and Supply Requirements	362
	Oil and Oil-Based Products	362
	Natural Gas	363
	Electricity	364
V.	Challenges Facing the Sector	365
VI.	Policy Priorities and Options	366
	Meeting Investment Needs through Increased Private Sector Participation	366
	Deepening Reforms in the Oil and Gas Sectors	369
	Deepening Reforms in the Power Sector	373

Table 1. Index of Energy Consumption Per Capita in 1997	360
Table 2. Reserves and Production of Certain Oil Producers	360
Table 3. Oil Supply/Demand Balance for 1990–98	362

Chapter 18. Regulatory Environment for Private Sector

Participation in Infrastructure	377
I. Overview	377
II. Telecommunications	378
Background and Diagnostic	378
Institutional and Regulatory Framework	380
Recommendations	382
III. Natural Gas	383
Background and Diagnostic	383
Institutional and Regulatory Framework	384
Recommendations	387
IV. Urban Water and Sanitation	388
Background and Diagnostic	388
Institutional and Regulatory Framework	389
Recommendations	391
V. Transport	394
Background, Institutional, and Regulatory Framework	394
Roads	394
Airports and Airlines	396
Ports	398
Railways	400
Multimodality and Logistics	402
Recommendations	403
Table 1. Modal Distribution of Transport Services for Mexico's International Trade	402

Poverty and Inequality

Chapter 19. Reform of the Mexican Healthcare System	409
I. Introduction	409
II. Background and Issues	410
Sector Overview	410
Organization of Healthcare	412
Pending Issues	417
III. Health System Reforms to Date	425
Reforms in SSA	425
IMSS Reform	427
Improved Coordination of the Sector	428
Modernizing Healthcare Regulation	428
IV. Setting the Framework for Reform: Lessons from Abroad	428

	Financing Options	428
	A Converging Framework for Health System Organization	430
V.	Policy Recommendations	432
	Elements of a Reformed System	432
	Strategic Choices and the Pace of Reform	434
	Short-Term Actions for Health Sector Reform	436
	Medium- to Long-Term Policy Options	444
VI.	Conclusions	445
	References	446
	Box 1. Reducing Duplication of Services: Reforms and Innovations in Coahuila	418
	Figure 1. Overview of the Mexican Healthcare System—The Theory	413
	Figure 2. Schematic View of the Overlapping Functions in the System—The Practice	414
	Figure 3. Total Health Expenditure 1998, as percent GDP	415
	Figure 4. Sources of Care	416
	Figure 5. The Reformed System of Purchasing and Provision	435
	Chapter 20. Education Sector Strategy	447
I.	Background	447
II.	Issues	451
	Coverage	451
	Internal Efficiency Indicators	453
	Low Levels of Learning Achievement in Education	453
	Why Low Quality?	455
	Financial Resources	458
	Institutional Issues	460
III.	Government Strategy	462
	Lessons Learned	464
	Opportunities for Improvements	465
IV.	Options for the Future	469
	Basic Strategies	469
	Two Strategic Pathways to Educational Improvements	470
V.	An Action Plan	471
	Box 1. The Telesecundaria Program	463
	Figure 1. Cross-Country Relation between Education Attainment and GDP	448
	Figure 2. Education Spending per Student	450
	Figure 3. Distribution of Education Expenditure by Source	450
	Figure 4. Cumulative Distribution of Total Education Expenditures, 1996 National	459
	Figure 5. Cumulative Distribution of Federal Education Expenditures, 1996 National	459

Table 5. SP Strategy & Major Social Risks: Seven Key Problems and Best Practice Options	494
Table 6. Cost of Implementing SP Initiatives in Seven Major Categories of Risk	504

Chapter 22. Labor Markets

I. Context for Reform	511
II. Policy Issues and Options	513
The System of Benefits Provision is Costly, Distorts Labor Allocation, Diminishes Competitiveness, and Poorly Serves Workers	513
Large Mandated Severance Payments Reduce Labor Mobility, Impair Resource Reallocation, Increase Labor Costs, and Discourage Job Creation	515
Insufficient Human Capital Accumulation	520
The Industrial Relations and Collective Bargaining Framework Needs to Be Reviewed and Modernized	523
The Urban Informal Sector Needs Policies to Stimulate Growth and Encourage Formalization	526
Annex I - The Mexican System of Employment Protection	529
Annex II - Recent Labor Market Reforms in Spain	531
Annex III - The Minimum Wage	533
Box 1. A Possible Unemployment Insurance Program for Mexico	519
Figure 1. Mexico: Labor Market Flexibility	512
Figure 2. Conditional Median Real Hourly Earnings	523
Annex Figure 1. Minimum Wage/Mean Wage in OECD Countries and Latin America	534
Annex Figure 2a. Formal and Informal Worker	535
Annex Figure 2b. Cumulative Distribution of Wages from Formal and Informal Worker	535
Table 1. Tax Wedge on Payroll	513
Table 2. Marginal Value of Education by Level	521

Chapter 23. Indigenous Peoples and Poverty 537

I. Current Developments	537
Demography	537
Poverty Rates	538
Migration	539
The Rural Economy	539
Indigenous Peoples and Biodiversity	540
Indigenous Rural Identity	541
Communal Systems of Governance	541
Transition	542

	Creating Political Space	543
	Indigenous Life in Urban Settings	543
	Educational and Health Indicators	544
II.	Issues for Indigenous Development	545
	Problems	545
	Indigenous Governance and Organizational Capacity	545
	Lack of "Fit" of Poverty Programs with Indigenous Interests and Needs	546
	Multiethnic Society and an Institutional Framework	548
	Health and Education Services	549
	Migrant, Urban, and Indigenous Groups in Arid Lands	550
III.	Options For The Future	550

Chapter 24. The Economics of Gender in Mexico: Work, Family

	State, and Market.	553
I.	Introduction	553
	Gender Demographic and Economic Indicators for Mexico	555
	Gender Differences in Educational Attainment and Achievement	555
	The Gender Differentiated Impact of Child Labor and School Dropout on Returns to Human Capital	557
	Gender Issues in Workforce Participation and Self-Employment	558
	Household Effects on Labor Force Participation	559
	The Maquiladora Sector	560
	Gender Differentials in Microenterprise Earnings	561
	Gender, Generation, and Off-Farm Employment on the Mexican Ejido	562
	The Welfare of Male and Female Elderly	563
II.	Conclusions	565
III.	Policy Recommendations	566
	References	568

Chapter 25. Government Programs and Poverty 569

I.	Introduction and Overview: Ten Strategic Questions	569
II.	Key Findings	569
III.	Broad-Based Public Expenditures and Poverty	576
	Access of the Poor to Broad-Based Social Public Expenditures Remains Limited	576
	Not All Agricultural Programs Benefit the Rural Poor in the Same Way	581
IV.	Investments in the Human Capital of the Poor	585
	PROGRESA	586
	Food Programs	590
	Compensatory Education	596

V.	Income Opportunities for the Poor	598
	Programa de Empleo Temporal	598
	Other Employment Programs for the Poor.	603
	Training Programs	604
VI.	Investments in the Physical Capital of Poor Areas	607
	Inadequate Access to Basic Social Infrastructure	609
	Good Institutions and Management are Needed for Decentralization to Be Pro-poor	612
VIII.	Conclusion	616
Box 1.	A Simple Framework for Measuring the Cost-Effectiveness of Public Works	601
Figure 1.	Broad-based and Targeted Policies	570
Figure 2.	Targeted Policies by Group	570
Figure 3.	Resources Channeled by Poverty Alleviation Programs	571
Figure 4.	Government Spending for Poverty Alleviation	571
Figure 5.	Concentration Curves for Enrollment by Education Level, 1996, Public Schools	577
Figure 6.	Distribution of Income, Training Courses, and Hours of Training.	579
Figure 7.	Spending for Human Capital, 1998–2000.	586
Figure 8.	Monthly Cash Transfers from PROGRESA	589
Figure 9.	Coverage and Type of School Breakfast	593
Figure 10.	Compensatory Education Programs.	596
Figure 11.	Government Spending for Income Employment, 2000 Pesos	599
Figure 12.	Expenditure in Physical Capital in Poor Areas, 1998 and 1999.	608
Figure 13.	FAIS Allocations in 2000	615
Table 1.	Coverage of Food Subsidies, 1998	591
Table 2.	Targeting Performance of Food Programs	595
Table 3.	Characteristics of PET Participants.	600
Table 4.	Modalities of PROBECAT's Main Training Modules.	606
Table 5.	Lack of Access to Public Services (Percent)	610
Table 6.	Lack of Access to Programs (Percent)	610
Table 7.	Allocation Rules for the Main Social Spending Funds in Ramo 33	614

A Sustainable Future

Chapter 26.	Water	619
I.	Current Situation: A Changing World	619
	Background	619
II.	The Issues: What Are the Challenges for the Future?	622
	The Good News: Results Achieved	623
	The Bad News: Gaps and New Challenges.	625
III.	Future Development: Policy Options and Recommendations	632

Water Resources Management	632
Irrigation	634
Water Supply and Sanitation	635
Drought and Flood Management	638
Institutions and Organizations: The Role of CNA	638
IV. Summary	640
Figure 1. Economic Activity and Water Availability	620
Figure 2. Regional Water Availability and Withdrawals	621
Figure 3. Overexploited Aquifers in Mexico and Relationship with Precipitation	622
Figure 4. Major Groundwater Uses	623
Table 1. Summary of Issues	641
Chapter 27. Biodiversity.	645
Summary	645
I. Current Developments	646
Facts and Figures	646
Value of Biodiversity	647
Pressures on Biodiversity	648
Institutional and Policy Responses	649
II. Issues	652
Conceptual Issues	655
III. Strategic Options for the Future	659
A Typology of Policy Options	659
Cross-Cutting Issues	665
References	666
Box 1. Conceptual Framework for Biodiversity Management	656
Table 1. Vegetation Types	646
Table 2. Vegetation Areas Under Management: Current Levels and Policy Objectives	651
Table 3. Budgets of Selected Biodiversity-Related SEMARNAP Programs and of Other Sectors	653
Table 4. A Framework for Biodiversity Policy Analysis	661
Figure 1. Population Growth, Forest Cover, and Incidence of Rural Poverty	655
Chapter 28. Forestry and Land Management.	669
I. Current Developments	669
Continued Resource Degradation Despite Reforms	669
Growing Recognition of the Multiple Social Values of Forests	670
The Promise of Forestry-Based Community Development and Natural Forest Management	671
The Emerging Need for Commercial Plantations	672

	Government Interventions in Land Management	673
	Government Interventions in the Forestry Sector	674
II.	Issues for Sustainable Land and Forest Management	675
III.	Options for the Future	678
	Policy Enhancements and Areas for Government Focus	679
Chapter 29. Natural Disaster Management		683
I.	Background	683
	Natural Disaster Experience	683
	Impact of Disasters on Country's Economy and Development Programs	683
	Impact of Natural Disasters on the Poor	685
	Government Approach to Date	685
II.	Main Sector Issues	686
	Institutional Coordination	686
	Prevention	687
	Post-Disaster Financing	687
III.	Options for the Future	688
	Institutional Coordination	688
	Prevention	688
	Post-Disaster Financing	689
Table 1. Natural Disasters, Deaths, and Economic Losses in Mexico, 1980–98		684
Chapter 30. Air Quality		691
I.	Background	691
II.	Issues	693
	Large and Unsustainable Impact on Health	693
	Weak Institutional Framework for Air Quality Management	694
	Indoor pollution	694
	Weak (or Lack of) Internalization of Environmental and Health Costs in Policy Making	694
	Limited Citizen Participation	694
	Barriers to Gains in Energy Efficiency and the Promotion of Renewable Energy Resources	695
	Barriers to Promotion of Cleaner Vehicles and Fuels	695
	Weak Incentives for Private Sector Participation	695
III.	Strategic Options and Policy Objectives	695
Chapter 31. Solid Waste Management		701
I.	Background	701
II.	Major Issues	702
III.	Strategic Options	703

Strengthening of Regulations and Institutions at the Federal and Local Level	703
Extending the Provision of Services to Medium- and Small-Size Localities	704
Reduction in Waste Generation (At-Source Reduction) and Promotion of Recycling	705
Addressing Social Issues (Pepenadores) Through Involvement in Transfer Stations and Recycling Centers	705
Harmonizing Efforts Seeking Solid Waste Management Improvements with Climate Change Concerns	705
Specific Actions	706

Accountability and the Demand for Quality Government

Chapter 32. Decentralization	709
I. Mexico's Decentralization in International Perspective	709
II. Pending Policy Issues	711
Spending	711
Taxes	712
Transfers	713
Debt and Borrowing	714
Institution Building	715
III. Policy Options	717
Continuing Current Reforms	718
Reforming the Pacto Fiscal	718
Rationalizing Sectoral Decentralization	719
State-Level Reforms	719
Table 1. Fiscal Magnitudes: Federal and State Governments, 1997	710

Chapter 33. Governance	721
I. The Components of Governance	721
II. Governance in Mexico: Progress Made	722
III. Corruption: Some Observations	722
Transparency International's Index	722
Evidence from National Surveys	722
IV. Recent Developments	723
Anti-Corruption Efforts in Mexico: Focus on SECODAM	723
Toward a More Comprehensive Anticorruption Agenda in Mexico ..	725
V. Conclusion	731

Chapter 34. Legal and Judicial Institutions	733
I. Background	733
II. Organization and Operations of the Legal-Judicial System	734
Intersystem Relationships	735

	Federal Judiciary	736
	State Judiciaries	737
	Overview of Other Legal Framework and Ancillary Institutions	739
III.	Issues	740
	Better Information to Support Reform Planning	741
	Monitoring and Evaluating Results	742
	Getting the Right Mix of Reform and Modernization.	742
	Ways to Address Extrasectoral Impacts of Reform.	743
IV.	Policy Options	744
	Entry Point	744
	Scope of Change Attempted	745
	Type of Horizontal and Vertical Coordination	746
	References	747

MICROFINANCIAMIENTO Y POBREZA

Emma Zapata Martelo
Pedro Pablo Ramírez Moreno
Laura Elena Garza Bueno
Josefina López Zavala
Miriam Hernández Neri
Ma. Isabel Ramos Ávila
Dolores Reyes Emba

022
m
(06-8605)
NO. 2

CAME Finanzas Populares

Colegio de Posgraduados

Área de Género:
Mujer Rural

PLAZA Y VALDES
P Y V
EDITORES

Índice

Introducción	11
El Centro de Apoyo al Microempresario y la búsqueda de su impacto	19
Perfil de una microfinanciera: CAME	19
Los objetivos	19
Los inicios	20
El área de atención	22
La evolución	26
Comentarios	31
La evaluación de impacto de CAME	32
La importancia de evaluar	32
Una respuesta al desafío de evaluar el impacto	34
Un intento global por evaluar el impacto de las microfinanzas	38
La investigación CAME-CP	40
Diseño y ejecución de la encuesta para medir impacto y el uso de los préstamos	42

El universo de trabajo de CAME	49
Características generales de las socias de CAME
y de sus familias	49
Estado de procedencia de las socias	53
Lugar de residencia actual de las socias	56
Sexo de los participantes en el programa	57
Edad de las socias	60
Estado civil de las socias	62
Escolaridad de las socias	63
Año de ingreso de las socias al programa	66
Número de préstamos que han tomado y de ciclos en el programa	67
Monto de los ahorros y préstamos	68
Nivel de morosidad de las socias	70
Estructura de la familia	72
Persona que toma las decisiones en la familia	76
Educación de niños y niñas	77
Comportamiento de los ingresos en los últimos 12 meses	81
Comentarios	84
El uso que le dan al préstamo las socias de CAME	87
Inversión del préstamo de CAME en algún negocio ..	88
Socias que no invirtieron el préstamo de CAME	90
Tipo de negocio en que la socia invirtió el préstamo de CAME	98
Comentarios	101
Los micronegocios de las socias	102
Nivel del negocio: ingreso, mano de obra y utilidades	102
Socias que se dedican a alguna actividad económica	103
Propiedad del negocio y quién lo maneja	104
Características del negocio	106
Costos, ventas y utilidades	111
Comentarios	117

El impacto del microcrédito de CAME	119
Ámbito del negocio: cambios efectuados
en los últimos 12 meses	119
Cambios efectuados en los últimos 12 meses	120
Comentarios	125
Ámbito individual: ahorro y habilidades
empresariales	126
Los ahorros	127
Factores a considerar para emprender
un negocio	130
Cambios en el manejo de su negocio	133
Crisis financieras en el manejo de sus negocios ..	135
Comentarios	136
Ámbito hogar: activos adquiridos	137
Adquisición de activos por parte de las socias	137
Comentarios	145
Ámbito de bienestar familiar	146
Mejoras en el hogar	146
Tipo de reparaciones o mejoras efectuadas
en el hogar	147
Tendencias de la dieta familiar durante
los últimos 12 meses	148
Comentarios	152
Opiniones de las socias	153
Opiniones de las socias con tres o más ciclos
en el programa	153
Opiniones respecto a lo que más les gusta
del programa.	154
Opiniones respecto a lo que menos les gusta
del programa	156
Sugerencias para mejorar el programa	158
Comentarios	159
Conclusiones	161

Bibliografía	173
---------------------------	-----

Anexos

Anexo 1. Resumen de indicadores incluidos en la Encuesta de impacto	183
Anexo 2. Clasificación de las actividades económicas de las socias de CAME	189
Anexo 3. Encuesta global de impacto. Proyecto CAME-CP	191
Manual del encuestador	191
Ejemplos para el llenado de la actividad empresarial	206
Anexo 4	217